worship service. A group of members of St. James have been meeting on Fridays for over 10 years to say the Morning Prayer service found in our Book of Common Prayer, to pray for those on our prayer list, and to share breakfast together afterward. If you are thinking of adding weekly worship to your 2016 schedule please consider trying Morning Prayer on January 1st or talk to any of our regular attenders: Richard Hall, Amy Healey, Dan Hornung, Sudi Johnson, Judy Lavicka, Anne Schuette, or Dianne Wilson.

Visual Arts Board--"Art Among Us"

The Visual Arts Board, located in the front foyer, presents and celebrates the seasons and lessons of the church in art.

Individuals are invited to feature their creative gifts of the Holy Spirit in a variety of media (paintings, crafts, photography, etc.) to share with our community.

The January theme is: "Vespers," an evening prayer service originating in ancient times celebrated with hymns, psalms, and ringing of bells. We've passed the longest night yet the days are still short. At the end of the day we praise God. What does vespers mean to you? Please share your thoughts this January with Liz Gordon will coordinate the board this month.

The Jesus Fatwah: Love Your (Muslim) Neighbor as Yourself - Tuesdays, Jan. 5 - Feb. 2, 6:30-8:00PM

Much of what passes as information about Islam is weed-like disinformation rooted in stereotype and watered by fear. In The Jesus Fatwah" Love Your (Muslim) Neighbor as Yourself, Christian and Islamic scholars offer reliable information about what Muslims believe, how they live out their faith, and how we all can be about building relationships across the lines of faith. This five-week video-based series is produced by Living the Questions. Talk to Sally Hunner or Sudi Johnson for more info. To schedule a possible daytime class, contact Sally.

Wednesday, Jan. 6, 5:30PM-8:00PM

Celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany! We'll gather for Worship at 5:30PM, followed by a pot luck meal. At 7:00PM we'll watch Star of Bethlehem (2009 documentary, 60 min.), which explores the evidence for God's existence as seen in the stars. Bring a guest! Education Alert! Diocesan Deacons' School will begin on Sat., 9 January 2016 at Grace, Sheboygan!

This presents an additional and in-depth educational opportunity even if you are not in formation to become a deacon. Classes will meet every second Saturday, from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. (gathering for worship at 8:15, and ending with prayer at 3 p.m., with a lunch in common). Two courses will be offered for instruction in 2016:

§ Old Testament: 3 contact hours. An in-depth survey of the origins, composition, canonization, contents and theology of the Old Testament.

§ Church History: 3 contact hours. The history of the Church from the apostolic age to today, with specific focus on theological development.

The courses will not result in any educational credit, but will be taught at a college level. There will be no required tests or papers for any participants not in formation for ordination. Approximately one to two hours study per day will be necessary to keep current in the course.

It is not necessary that you attend all sections of either course, i.e., if you want to dive deeper in particular parts of the Old Testament or Church History you can attend only those sessions.

There will be no cost to attend, except for the cost of textbooks (approximately $80-100). A free will offering will be collected to help defray meal costs.

If you are curious, please request a copy of a detailed syllabus for either or both courses from the office at Grace Episcopal Church, Sheboygan (920-452-9659). It is necessary to act quickly (a lot of reading prior to 9 January!)
