August 7 - Neighborhood Prayer Drive

Following church on Sunday August 7 everyone is welcome to join members of the Vestry for a neighborhood prayer drive. We actually go a bit farther than our neighborhood. We will carpool and follow a set route, stopping at specific places to learn about our community and to pray for our community. Each person will get a prayer sheet and we make the stops together. The Vestry has done this for the past several years. Typically we plan for about an hour. See Amma Diane if you have questions. There is a sign-up sheet at the info center at the back of church.
