KAN Cool for School

KAN Cool for School is a school supply giveaway event for area children who may not have access to them. We are currently collecting new, unused school supplies for this event. There is a bin and a wish list near the Peter's Pantry collection bins. In addition to school supplies, we also are collecting socks, underwear, sweatpants (all size Youth Small-Youth Large), winter hats, mittens (especially waterproof styles). Any help is greatly appreciated. Our event is scheduled for August 19 (set up) and August 20 (event). Watch for sign-up sheets to help with the event. If you have any questions, please ask Mary Burckle

Christian Book Sharing Group Begins. . .

"And all those who had believed were together and had all things in common." -- Acts 2:44

Enjoy some summer reading and group time together as we share and exchange our favorite Christian "book blessings" ! When approaching a variety of reading materials, we can often be encouraged and uplifted by the writings of faith experiences. There is a signup sheet in the back of church for interested readers. We will meet briefly after the church service, June 19, at Fellowship Hour, to consider days and time to meet. For more information, please see Amma Diane

Visual Arts Board--"Art Among Us"

This week Audrey Bean is sharing "Birds in Nature". Feel free to share photos and art, of summer fun, camp, travel and the joys of nature. For contributions and more into, please talk to: Amma Diane, Liz Gordon, Sally Hunner, Tony Karl, Chuck Wernecke, and Dianne Wilson

Appalachia Service Project Mission trip to Kentucky June 18 - 25

Because of all of the Christmas wreaths that St. James members bought last fall, Joe Hoover and Anne Schuette, along with 13 adults and 15 youth will travel to Kentucky with the Appalachia Service Project mission team from Grace Congregational UCC in Two Rivers June 18 through 25. Thank you so much! The team will be working on homes in Knott County, and staying at Cordia Community School in Hazard. The group will spend one night on the road at the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Lexington, KY. We are so grateful for the welcome that our fellow Episcopalians have provided to us over the years. The ASP group also spent May 21 doing local mission by working to replace the Cattail Trail boardwalk at Woodland Dunes. If you know of a young person in 9th grade or older, who would be interested in an ASP trip in 2017, talk to Joe or Anne for more information.

St. James Book Group Meets June 29, 7PM at PK's Beans & Cream

The St. James Book Group is reading Still Life by Louise Penny in June. This is the first book in her "Inspector Armand Gamache" crime fiction series - and quite a few of our members are already fans of the Inspector. We will meet on Wednesday, June 29, at PK's Beans and Cream on the corner of N. 8th St. and New York Avenue at 7:00 pm to discuss the book and sample the ice cream. Feel free to arrive early and catch up on members' summertime exploits. Copies of the book, on loan from the Manitowoc Public Library, can be found in the lower level cloakroom, and are available to sign out and return on the day of our meeting. Our group is open to all St. James members and their friends. Questions? Contact Anne Schuette (682-7723) or Marie Hawkins (683-9032).

You are welcome to join us for group discussion for all or as many as you are able to attend at 8:45 A.M. on Sundays in the church library. See Dianne Wilson or Amma Diane for questions or further information

Hello! My name is Paul Aparicio and I am your deacon-in-training this summer. Part of my diaconal formation is to venture to other parishes away from the where I was raised up. At the moment, my home parish is Grace in Sheboygan, your neighbor to the south. My wife, Andrea, and my two children, Leona and Paul Jr., live in Sheboygan. I am employed as an electrical engineer at Curt G. Joa, Inc. in Sheboygan Falls. I look forward to meeting each of you and learning from the ministries at your parish.

Thanks,
Paul

Paul will be serving at St. Peter's in Sheboygan Falls for approximately six weeks beginning June 15. Following Paul's time at St. Peter's, he will come to St. James for six weeks beginning July 17, 2016
