St. Faith's Guild Meeting Friday Sept. 9, 1:30PM

The monthly meeting of St. Faith's women's guild is moving to the SECOND Friday during the month of September to avoid the Labor Day Holiday weekend. All women are welcome to attend. There is a wonderful snack and this month's speaker will be Liz Schrank, who will talk about her recent trip to South America. Sandy Olson will serve as the hostess this month. We hope to see you there! For more information, please contact Judy Lavicka.

Meals on Wheels Volunteers Needed the Week of September 12 - 16

St. James members are delivering Meals on Wheels the week of September 12 - 16. This ministry involves signing up, arriving at the Senior Center at 3330 Custer St. at 10:30AM, loading the meals into your car, and delivering the meals to several senior living apartment buildings (the "purple route") around Manitowoc. You will be done by noon and can volunteer with a friend or partner up with another St. James member. If you can help out please sign up on the clipboard at the back of church. Contact Anne Schuette (682-7723) or Judy Lavicka (684-1445) with any questions.

Zimmer Forum Resumes on Tuesday - Sept. 13

The Zimmer Forum is as described as "a book group for people of faith" and is sponsored by Silver Lake College and St. Francis of Assisi Parish in honor and memory of Fr. Bill Zimmer, long-time pastor of Sacred Heart Parish, and friend of St. James Church.

The monthly forum resumes on Tuesday, September 13, at 12:00 noon, with Bishop Robert Morneau scheduled to present The Gaze of Mercy: A Commentary on Divine and Human Mercy by Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa. Bishop Morneau is a poet and also the bishop emeritus of the Roman Catholic diocese of Green Bay, and pastor of Resurrection Church, Allouez.

The Zimmer Forum discussions are open to the public without charge and take place in the Heritage Room (room 238) on the second floor of the main building of Silver Lake College, 2406 South Alverno Road, Manitowoc, on the second Tuesday of each month during the school year. An Invitation to visit Qamar Mosque Sept. 17

In a conversation I had with Neil Piepenburg, the members of St. James have been invited to attend the following:

Through a program Building Bridges to Understanding via Lakeshore United Methodist Church, Neil is organizing a trip to Qamar Mosque in Oshkosh on Saturday, September 17th. We will leave from the Reed Avenue site at 8:30 a.m. in order to arrive at the mosque by 10:30 a.m. Time will be spent in dialogue and conversation with leaders and members of that Islamic community, and end the morning sharing some of their cultural foods.

Neil invites you to join him if you are interested, and to share this event with your friends and respective communities of faith. Tentatively we will car pool and there is no cost, however if there is enough interest Neil will look into renting a coach and there may be a small fee.

If you have questions or need further information, please contact me, Amma Diane, at 920-860-5152 or dianemarie.murray@gmail.com To sign up, call the Lakeshore UMC office at 682-6311, please also let me know if you plan on attending.

St. James Book Group Reads (and Eats) American Pie in September

The St. James Book Group is reading American Pie: Slices of Life (and Pie) from America's Back Roads by Pascale Le Drabulec in September. The author describes a cross-country trip along the back roads seeking out "pies with character and characters who love pie." We will get together on Wednesday, September 28, at 6:30PM to sample our own pies (pot luck) and talk about the book. Copies of the book are in the downstairs cloakroom and can be signed out and returned on the day of our meeting. All St James members and their friends are invited to be a part of this group (and enjoy some pie even if you haven't read the book!) Besides talking about a book each month, we enjoy general literary discussions. Please call Marie Hawkins (683-9032) or Anne Schuette (682-7723) with any questions.

Visual Arts Board--"Art Among Us"

The Visual Arts Board, located in the front foyer, presents and celebrates the seasons and lessons of the church in art. Individuals are invited to feature their creative gifts of the Holy Spirit in a variety of media (paintings, crafts, photography, etc.) to share with our community. The theme is - "Blessings of Summer". Feel free to share photos and art, of summer fun, camp, travel and the joys of nature. For contributions and more into, please talk to: Amma Diane, Liz Gordon, Sally Hunner, Tony Karl, Chuck Wernecke, and Dianne Wilson

St. James - Madison Elementary School Homework Club Starts on Sept. 27

The first day of Homework Club for the 2016-17 school year will be Tuesday, September 27 - and a volunteer training is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 20 at 4:00 pm in the St. James Fellowship Hall.

Homework Club, a partnership formed by volunteers from St. James Church and the students, staff and teachers at Madison Elementary School, started in 2006. The club meets on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons right after school. Our goal is to provide an optimal setting for students to do their homework, and work on reading and other academic skills. Madison is our neighborhood school and most of the students in Homework Club live within a few blocks of St. James.

We use "Time To Teach", a program for teaching desired student behavior, at our regular Tuesday and Thursday sessions. The program includes the core beliefs that caring is key, conflict is natural and part of growing up, good behavior must be taught systematically, behavior can be changed, self-control takes practice, and good discipline is a matter of good timing.

Last year we worked with up to 20 students every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon. We are looking for volunteers from St. James to help with several jobs:

- Snack providers - Provide a healthy snack at each Homework Club session. St James members have kept us well supplied with snacks every year. Some favorite snacks include fresh fruit and vegetables, string cheese, and applesauce in individual servings, as well as juice. Snack items can be dropped off on Sundays, or anytime the church is open. We have designated spaces in the church kitchen to store Homework Club snacks. To help with snacks please talk to Mary Burckle.
- Walkers - Meet the students at Madison School at 3:10 pm and escort them to St. James. The short walk is a great way to interact with the kids and get some outdoor exercise at the same time. If you would like to walk with the Homework Club kids this year please talk to Anne Schuette.
- Study supervisors - This job involves checking homework or providing extra help, listening to a child read out loud, or playing an educational game with students. Volunteers are needed on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:30 to 4:30 pm. Please talk to either Mary or Anne if you would like to help with student homework.

A general orientation for volunteers is scheduled for Tuesday, September 20 at 4:00 pm in the St. James Fellowship Hall. Training materials about "Time to Teach" as well as general orientation information are available and we can also provide individual training times to work around any schedule. Some of our volunteers come from other churches in the area, or find out about Homework Club through friends, so if you know of a person outside of the St. James community who might have the gifts to help children with their school work, please pass their name along to either Anne Schuette (242-2819) or Mary Burckle (905-9690.)
