Polka Mass Sunday, May 21 at 10AM

The Bob Kuether Band returns to St James Episcopal Church for our 10AM worship on Sunday, May 21 to provide music for a Polka Mass. Polka music with lyrics adapted to a worship setting will replace our hymns and service music on that day, and some dancing in the aisles is encouraged! Bob is the son of long-time member Lee Kuether and formed his own band in 1970. His band plays polkas and dance music at venues all over northeast Wisconsin. The polka mass tradition began in the 1970s. Various bands have adapted and shared commonly used hymn lyrics and popular polka tunes. Bob's son Mark has been offering a piano prelude before our 10AM Easter morning services since 2014. Please feel free to invite friends, neighbors and polka enthusiasts to St James on this fun day!

PLEASE SHARE CONTENT FOR ST JAMES MAGAZINE

Any member or friend of St James Episcopal Church may submit content for inclusion in St James Magazine. Suggested items to contribute: photos, event recaps, poems, book/movie reviews, personal news/stories, recipes, longer feature articles, and other content that is not time-sensitive. You can see the last issue displayed in color outside the church office, or on our web site. We hope to publish our next edition in early Summer 2017 if we receive enough content. Our initial deadline is June 5, but will be extended if more content is needed. You can start contributing your content at any time, either by emailing it to Tony Karl (tony.karl@att.net) or drop off/mail items to the church office. If you have any questions or ideas about content for future issues, please talk to Tony Karl. Thanks!

On Tuesday, May 23 see the students of Madison in action by attending their Spring Concert at either 10 AM or 2 PM in the school gymnasium. Contact Anne Schuette (242-2819) with any questions.

Sharing Our Faith Stories Thursday, May 24 5PM

The Old and New Testaments are full of stories of faith. Because we worship a living God, contemporary faith stories are happening all around us. Gather in the lower level Classroom to hear stories from people of faith. Perhaps you'll want to share a story of your own. Please talk to Sally Hunner for more info.

Gertrude Fenner a former school teacher and member of St. James not only left a legacy for St. James, she also funded a scholarship fund at Lincoln High School in Manitowoc. One of the stipulations of the scholarship fund is that the Rector at St. James must read all applicants essays along with the Principal or Vice Principal and a Guidance Counselor. We had more applications than ever this year and the essays again were amazing! The scholarships are open to all graduates. Recipients of the $1,000 scholarships are: Acacia Chanthavong, Caesar Casas, Storm Hackman, Lindsey Lee, Lily Lor, Shelby Nickels, Brianna O'Connor, Natalie Ruben, and Jennique Stadtmueller.

Discuss "When Breath Becomes Air" with the St. James Book Group on May 24

The St. James Book Group is reading "When Breath Becomes Air" by Paul Kalanithi during the month of May. Dr. Kalanithi's memoir concerns his diagnosis of cancer while he is completing his medical residency. The book is full of a young man's insights about life and death. Please join us to discuss the book on Wednesday, May 24 at 7 PM in the church library. We have a number of copies of the book available to sign out from the downstairs cloakroom and return on the day of the meeting. Please contact Anne Schuette (242-2819) or Marie Hawkins (683-9032) with questions.

Meals on Wheels Volunteers Needed to End May and Start off June

St. James volunteers will deliver Meals on Wheels during the week of May 30 through June 2. A sign-up sheet will be available in the back of the church, and please talk to Judy Lavicka (684-1445) with any questions. This activity takes about one hour and involves picking up the meals at the Manitowoc Senior Center at 10:30 AM on your day, and dropping meals off at 4 or 5 senior living facilities. Thank you so much for helping out!

A message from the Most Reverend Justin Welby, Archbishop of Canterbury:

There's a lot about this job that stops you from getting too self-important. I remember being at some event and one of my colleagues heard someone in the crowd whisper, "Isn't that the Archbishop of Canterbury over there?" And the person's friend hissed back, "Nah, too short."

When I meet Jesus Christ at the judgment, I know one thing. He isn't going to care what size of Archbishop I was, or, I think, whether I was an Archbishop. What matters is that I loved Him and sought to follow Him, and above all, that I trusted in Him alone for my life and my future. Because the most important thing I've ever done is to become a follower of Jesus.

I took my first steps with Him about 42 years ago. Over those years, He's been a faithful friend, a Sovereign Lord, compassionate, forgiving, my ever-present Saviour, everything in my life, the heart and foundation of all I am.

Through the hardest and most painful times and in the best and most joyful times in my life, Jesus has walked alongside me. He's never left, even when I've wanted Him to. When I felt ready to give up hope, He picked me up, and it's His love that has healed me and strengthened me. Following Jesus has been the core point of my life, and that's one reason I want everyone to hear His voice calling to them and to learn what it is to find His love, His call, His direction, His purpose.

That's why I'm pledging to pray for more people to know the life-transforming love of Jesus Christ. And that's why I'm asking you, along with every Christian

Opportunities to Help Each Other

Occasionally members of St. James needs a ride to church. Right now we are seeking St. James members to give Geri Walker a ride to church on Sunday mornings. Geri lives at River Hills Apts. 1500 N.3rd St. in Manitowoc. Geri is ready to go by 9:15am. There is a sign-up sheet at the back of church for Sundays in May and June. Please call Donna Franz 973-3017 if you have questions.

community around the world, to join me in pledging to pray as part of Thy Kingdom Come.

Thy Kingdom Come is a global prayer movement, which invites Christians around the world to pray between Ascension and Pentecost (May 25-June 4) for more people to come to know Jesus Christ. What started out as an invitation from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York in 2016 to the Church of England has grown into an international and ecumenical call to prayer. Find out how you can #Pledge2Pray as an individual, family, or church by visiting www.thykingdomcome.global.

Visual Arts Board "Art Among Us"

The Visual Arts Board, located in the front foyer, presents and celebrates the seasons and lessons of the church in art. Individuals are invited to feature their creative gifts of the Holy Spirit in a variety of media (paintings, crafts photography, etc.) to share with our community. We are highlighting the various ministries of St. James. For more into, please talk to: Amma Diane, Liz Gordon, Sally Hunner, Tony Karl, Chuck Wernecke, and Dianne Wilson

Worship Feedback Sessions June 4

You are invited to help shape our worship life at St James Episcopal Church! A worship feedback session is scheduled for Sunday, June 4 at 11:30AM. All are welcome to attend. Plan on an hour, but we'll run up to a max of 90 minutes if there is a lot of sharing. Worship is something very personal in our relationship with God, yet we do it together. The session will be designed to help us share positively about what we have found meaningful and memorable in previous worship at St James and in other settings. We'll work to find common language as we reflect upon the recent seasons and occasions in our worship and offer ideas for upcoming seasons. This is not a committee, so you can attend if you are able/interested without commitment. Your feedback will help our Rector and Music Director plan liturgies and music. If you have any questions, please talk to Pastor Diane Murray or Tony Karl.

St. James Book Circle June 6, 6:30PM

St James Book Circle is a co-ed group who meet the first Wednesday of the month to share and 'swap' with each other the contemporary Christian Books we are reading: Here are some titles we shared in May. We will meet again the first Wednesday of the month, June 6th at 6:30.

Donald Miller: Blue Like Jazz

Lindsey Hardin Freeman: Stories of Women Transformed by Faith

June G.Paul: Praying Our Way Through Stress: Drawing Wisdom from the Lord's Life and Prayer

Rayna Idilby, Suzanne Oliver, Priscilla Warner: The Faith Club: A Muslim, A Christian and a Jew: 3 Women Searching for Understanding If you were unable to participate in the Discover and Grow series: Loving our Interfaith Neighbor, perhaps this book might be a place to begin.

Hope House Updates

Hope House of Manitowoc County empowers homeless families and individuals to progress toward self-sufficiency, one household at a time.

Amma Diane has joined the Board of Directors of Hope House.

We Are Invited to Visit the New Hope House - Thursday, May 25 from 3 - 6:30 PM

Thursday, May 25th is the next Hope House open house for the following congregations: St. Johns Lutheran Church, First Presbyterian, Lakeshore United Methodist, St. James Episcopal Church, Unitarian Universalists, Pax Christi, and St. Johns United Church of Christ. All are welcome to drop by the new location (corner of Custer and S. 35th Streets) between 3 - 6:30 pm. These open houses are not only for congregation members to come and be a part of the move and see the new building, but this will be a great opportunity to bring a friend or family member who is not currently volunteering at Hope House to come and see what we are all about! I am so excited for all of you to come and experience the new locations and see how we will be able to nearly double the amount of families we can serve! Please contact Steve Carlson, Volunteer Coordinator, at 686-1436 with any questions.

Hope House residents will be moving into the new house hopefully by mid-summer!

St. James is helping fund the Hope House move

The St. James Outreach Fund will match up to $2,500 that is donated to Hope House through St. James. Our goal is to be able to contribute a total of $5,000 (or more) over a three year period. The loose plate offering on the first Sunday of the month, every other month is being donated to Hope House and we have had other specific Sunday donation days. Individual donations can also be made.

St. James volunteers regularly help at Hope House. We share a volunteer week with Lakeshore United Methodist Church. If you want to know how you might be able to help, please talk to Amma Diane.
