St. James Book Group Meets on Wednesday, October 25

The St. James Book Group will discuss The Underground Railroad by Colson Whitehead on Wednesday, October 25 at 7:00PM in the church library. The author won a National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize in 2016 for this novel. He chronicles the lives of generations of Americans from their trip from Africa to the United States in the early 1820's, in the hold of a slave ship, through the antebellum South. The St. James Book Group meets on the fourth Wednesday of the month and all members and their friends are welcome to attend. We obtain our books through the Manitowoc Public Library inter-library loan. The books are stored on a shelf in the downstairs cloakroom at church and copies can be signed out at any time during the month, and returned on the day of our meeting. Please contact Marie Hawkins (683-9032) or Anne Schuette (682-7723) with any questions.

NEW Bible Study Opportunity Started Sept. 24

Independently, people are invited to read the Gospel of Matthew in a 50-day Bible challenge. It appears this method will work best for most people this season. A schedule of daily readings is available in the Info Center at the rear of the sanctuary or on the calendar on the left of the Weekly. We will gather at 8:45AM on Sunday November 12, the 50th day to share our thoughts on Matthew. All are welcome to read along. You may start anytime during the challenge.

All Saints/Souls Worship November 2 & 5

In early November we take time to remember and celebrate our family and friends, our sisters and brothers in Christ, and the saints in the broader church who have preceded us. Join us for All Souls' Day worship at 12PM on Thursday, November 2 and All Saints Sunday worship at 9AM and 10AM on Sunday, November 5. (There will not be a service on November 1). These services will include time to remember others, as well as candle lighting and other traditions to help us remember our unity through time and place as the Body of Christ.

Our Next Meals on Wheels Week is Nov. 6 - 10

Mark your November calendar: volunteers from St. James will deliver Meals on Wheels during the week of November 6 - 10. Look for a sign-up sheet later this month. Please contact Judy Lavicka (684-1445) or Anne Schuette (682-7723) with any questions.

Remembering & Honoring Veterans Nov. 12

God calls us to be people of peace saying, "Blessed are the peacemakers", and reminding us that we are to love our neighbor and enemy as we love ourselves. There are times we as a global community fail to live out those words; times when young men and women hear the call to don the uniforms of their country and serve under their flag. Join us for 10AM worship on Sunday, November 12, which will include a time of remembrance, recognizing, and honoring veterans. Invite any veterans you know to join us for this special day.

Please talk to anyone on the teams to become involved in this ministry.

Living the Questions

Tuesdays, October 31 - December 12, 6:30-8PM O

Living the Questions is an open-minded alternative to studies that attempt to give participants all the answers, and instead strives to create an environment where participants can interact with one another in exploring what's next for Christianity. This class meets in the lower level Fellowship Hall at St James Episcopal Church from 6:30 to 8:00 PM on Tuesday evenings October 31 through December 12. on

Each week will include time watching video segments featuring a variety of scholars, theologians, and other experts, as well as time to share and discuss. Weekly themes will include: "Restoring Relationships", "The Prophetic Jesus", "Evil, Suffering, & A God of Love", "The Myth of Redemptive Violence", "Practicing Resurrection", "Debunking the Rapture", and "Honoring Creation" (this is a different set of topics than the Living the Questions series offered in winter 2017). You don't need to commit to all seven weeks, so attend as you are able. There is no charge, no need to sign up, and all materials are provided. Please talk to Sally Hunner, Sudi Johnson, Tony Karl, or Amma Diane for more info.
