Bible Study: Review the Gospel of Matthew

Nov. 12, 8:45AM in the St. James library

Independently, people have been reading the Gospel of Matthew in a 50-day Bible challenge. A schedule of daily readings is available in the Info Center at the rear of the sanctuary or on the calendar on the left of the Weekly. We will gather at 8:45AM on Sunday November 12, the 50th day to share our thoughts on Matthew. All are welcome to attend even if you have not been reading along.

Remembering & Honoring Veterans Nov. 12

God calls us to be people of peace saying, "Blessed are the peacemakers", and reminding us that we are to love our neighbor and enemy as we love ourselves. There are times we as a global community fail to live out those words; times when young men and women hear the call to don the uniforms of their country and serve under their flag. Join us for 10AM worship on Sunday, November 12, which will include a time of remembrance, recognizing, and honoring veterans. Invite any veterans you know to join us for this special day.

Living the Questions Tuesdays, Nov. 14 - Dec. 12, 6:30-8PM

Living the Questions is an open-minded alternative to studies that attempt to give participants all the answers, and instead strives to create an environment where participants can interact with one another in exploring what's next for Christianity. This class meets in the lower level Fellowship Hall at St James Episcopal Church. Each week will include time watching video segments featuring a variety of scholars, theologians, and other experts, as well as time to share and discuss. Weekly themes will include: "Restoring Relationships", "The Prophetic Jesus", "Evil, Suffering, & A God of Love", "The Myth of Redemptive Violence", "Practicing Resurrection", "Debunking the Rapture", and "Honoring Creation" (this is a different set of topics than the Living the Questions series offered in winter 2017). You don't need to commit to all weeks, so attend as you are able. There is no charge, no need to sign up, and all materials are provided. Please talk to Sally Hunner, Sudi Johnson, Tony Karl, or Amma Diane for more info.

Zimmer Forum Nov 14 - The Red Bandanna

Jeff Kurowski will discuss The Red Bandanna: A Life, A Choice, A Legacy by Tom Rinaldi, at the Zimmer Forum on Tuesday, November 14, at 12:00 noon. Kurowski is the Associate Editor of The Compass, the newspaper for the Diocese of Green Bay. This book comes highly recommended by several members of St. James and focuses on the life of one man who acted heroically on 9/11/2001. How did his life prepare him for that moment? The talks take place in the Heritage Room (room 238) on the second floor of the main building of Silver Lake College, 2406 South Alverno Road, Manitowoc. There is no charge for this event. Please call Anne Schuette (242-2819) if you need a ride.

Thanksgiving Day At St. James - November 23

St. James will be filled with worship and music, fun and games, and the aroma of Thanksgiving on Thursday, November 23, as we continue the tradition of a family-style meal. Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 10:00AM, followed by games and activities in the Fellowship Hall. At noon all are welcome to sit down for turkey and mashed potatoes with gravy - supplemented by pot-luck dishes from those who attend. Please join the parish family for part or all of the day - you can come for the worship, the games, the food, or the works! Family and friends are welcome. If you know you are able to attend please sign up so we are can plan ahead. Contact Eleanor Agnew (686-1954) with any questions.

Advent Devotionals & Study Guides

Beginning Sunday, December 3, each Sunday in Advent we draw closer and closer to the celebration of the Incarnation of our Lord. St. James will again have Advent devotionals and study guides available for individuals or small groups to use. We plan to have devotionals from the Living Compass and printed copies of a new offering from the Commission on Congregational Vitality (CCV) available at the end of November.

The Sunday Collects serve as prayers that lead us in preparation for the Birth of Jesus. This Advent you are invited to spend time and engage the Collects of Advent using the Advent Series developed by the CCV. Each week consists of one of the Sunday Advent Collects accompanied by several questions for small group discussion or individual reflection. Perhaps you might want to invite others to join you? You may also download the CCV series at www.diofd.org/ccv

CONVERSATIONS IN COMMUNITY, ROUND 2 - NOVEMBER 2017

During November, your St James Episcopal Church Vestry is inviting everyone to be a part of the second round of Conversations in Community. Anybody who cares about St James Episcopal Church is invited. You are important to us, so we hope you will all participate! Our September 2017 Conversations helped lead us to a better understanding of who we are as a church in 2017 and what our concerns and dreams are for our future. This round will focus on our future.

Pairs of Vestry facilitators will lead each group and take notes. All are encouraged to listen with open hearts and minds as others share their own feelings and opinions relative to the questions that will be asked. (Amma Diane has actively participated in planning these conversations and will be part of the follow-up, but has chosen not to facilitate or attend these groups.) Every participant will have the opportunity to respond to all questions; it's okay if you don't have a response for every question. We're including the questions in this announcement for those who would like to think about them in advance. We'd like to hear some of your thoughts, concerns, ideas, and dreams about the future of our congregation when it comes to two of the largest portions of our budget-our building and our clergy:

1. Thinking about our current physical church structure (interior and exterior), grounds, and location, what do you like most?
2. Thinking about our current physical church structure (interior and exterior), grounds, and location, what do you like least?

3. Here's a list of some options related to our physical presence to consider as we discern our future. These are all options other churches have done-some have implemented more than one. No ideas are off the table. Speak to any of these that move you, positively or negatively. Big ideas and outside-the-box ideas are welcome.

What would it look like if...

...we stay in our current location and make no major changes?

...we stay in our current location and face major building expenses beyond our endowment fund?

...we stay and find other groups to lease part of the space in our current location?

...we move and lease part of the space in another church (sometimes called "nesting")?

...we move to another site (building a new site or leasing another site)?

...we move to another shared location (not in a traditional church space)?

...we share some combination of resources (ministries, finances, staff, and/or space) with one or more local churches?

...other ideas about where we do ministry?

4. Here's a list of some options related to clergy to consider as we discern our future.

These are all options other churches have done-some have implemented more than one. No ideas are off the table. Speak to any of these that move you, positively or negatively. Big ideas and outside-the-box ideas are welcome.

What would it look like if...

...we continue as-is with a half-time rector?

...we transition to a part-time rector (less than half-time)?

...the bishop is able to assign us a permanent Deacon in addition to our rector?

...we yoke with another non-local Episcopal Church, sharing one priest?

...we join an ecumenical partnership with local churches sharing multiple clergy?

...we stop having a rector and use supply clergy only?

...we stop having a rector and use supply clergy and contract additional fill-in ministry?

...other ideas about our relationship with clergy in our ministry?

Sign up for a Conversations in Community group at the back of the church starting Sunday 10/29. Some may find their experience enhanced by attending a group with a friend or family member, and others may prefer to attend separate groups. Groups of up to six participants and two Vestry facilitators will meet at St James for about 90-120 minutes. Water, coffee, and tea are available, and you are welcome to bring other snacks or refreshments. We've scheduled a variety of days and times: Monday 11/13 at 9:30AM; Tuesday 11/14 at 1:30PM; Thursday 11/16 at 9:30AM; and Tuesday 11/21 at 1:30PM. If you are unable to make it to church to sign up, please contact Amma Diane and she can assist you in signing up. If you are unable to attend any of the scheduled groups, let Amma Diane know and we'll make other arrangements with you.

We hope to see you all in Conversations in Community!
