Still time to join the Good Book Club

As we celebrate the season of Epiphany, Forward Movement, along with partners from across the Episcopal Church, invites all Episcopalians to participate in the Good Book Club. A church-wide Bible reading initiative, the Good Book Club will focus on Paul's Letter to the Romans, with participants reading a section of scripture each day during the Epiphany season.

"During Epiphany, we recall how Jesus is revealed to the world," said Richelle Thompson, deputy director and managing editor of Forward Movement. "Paul's letter to the Romans offers a way to explore the messages of grace, salvation, and redemption through Jesus Christ. This season between Christmas and Lent is a perfect time to engage deeply with God's Word and experience it anew."

Copies of the reading schedule are available at the back of the sanctuary or on-line at www.goodbookclub.org. The reading started Jan. 7, but you are encouraged to start anytime during the season of Epiphany.

Meals on Wheels Volunteers Needed February 4 - 8

Volunteers from St. James are assigned to deliver Meals on Wheels during the week of February 4 - 8. Brief Nominee Biographies

Chris Eggert-Rosenthal -

I came to the Episcopal Church via a Catholic then Lutheran a little Methodist and found a home! I am a widow. I have children and step-children in WI, TX, and CA. I am sort of retired-on and off I work in Healthcare and my job is to facilitate change and help people grow, this is a skill I can share. I believe that our church is an ideal home for everyone. We can learn and grow together in faith and take this message to the world around us. If each of us only touches one person a week we are making progress. I want to serve at St James to share our family with others. The vestry is an ideal place to serve. St James has given me so much and I want to give back.

Mary Green -

I'm a married mother of four grown daughters. My husband is Roman Catholic. I have happily been a member of St. James for two years. I currently am granny-nanny to our two granddaughters. I'm interested in too many things to list briefly, so I'll just say I love life and most everything in it.

Richard Hall -

I am a "cradle" Episcopalian. I was baptized and confirmed by Fr. St Clair. I am a 1958 graduate of Lincoln High School in Manitowoc and a U.S. Navy veteran. After returning to civilian life, I worked for the Wisconsin Telephone company (now AT&T) for 36 years and retired in Sept. of 1999. I have four children, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. I am a lay eucharistic minister, a member of the choir and serve as a member of the altar guild. I have served on the vestry several times and also as Jr. Warden and Sr. Warden. I know that things don't happen "over night," but I think that our church is headed in the right direction. I am looking forward to serving on the vestry and hope that I can help us maintain a welcoming church and serve God and our congregation.

Kim Kaufmann -

I have been a member of St. James for approximately 10 years. I have served as assistant treasurer and an acolyte for about 2 years. I Love St. James and all that it offers: our members are truly so welcoming and nonjudgmental. I truly enjoy being an Episcopalian - so very different than my Catholic upbringing. I look forward to the opportunity to serve on the Vestry and to further help make St. James an inviting safe community for all. It's a great place!!

Tammy McVeigh -

I am honored to be nominated to run for Senior Warden this year. I have been on the Vestry at St. James for the past 5 years, three as a Vestry member and two as a Junior Warden. I love the St. James community and with God's guidance will continue to build a strong SJEC community by collaboratively working with the Vestry and congregation towards our St. James 2021 goals.
